March 2022

Dear Parents / Carers,

Very nearly at the end of Term 3 and the snow continues to fall! What a difference a few days make – glorious sunshine then back to wearing winter coats!

Bikeability – Most of our P3/4/ pupils have successfully completed Level 1 of Bikeability this term. Very well done. 😊

Glee Choir – Members of the Glee Choir have been practising their two songs for the competition. We filmed both songs yesterday and the choir look and sound just great! Such enthusiasm and enjoyment is wonderful to see. We wish them good luck!

Tree of Knowledge – Our P7 pupils attended a transition event at Alford Academy this week where the focus was on team building, problem solving and recognising skills which will be useful in the working world. More transition events are scheduled for next term.

Visit from Mr Glen – We welcomed the minister, Mr Glen, back in to school to host an assembly last week. Mr Glen will come to school once a month to meet with all the pupils.

Doric Story Teller - This Friday, we welcome Jackie Ross, a Doric Story Teller who will be working with all the classes. Jackie will be telling stories and doing follow up activities with the pupils. 'Will be affa fine ti see her!'

Reconfiguration of the school day – Thank you to those who have already responded to our proposal. If you still wish to reply, please remember to do so by Monday 25th April. Thank you.

P5/6/7 Enterprise – A group of pupils have worked extremely hard in raising funds to purchase new footballs. ‘Guess the Easter Bunny’s Birthday’ raised £43 so Mrs Tice will now work with the pupils and help them with the order!

Well done 😊

Dress Down Day – Friday 1st April. Dress Down Day for all staff and pupils. No football tops please.

We wish you all a lovely Easter holiday, have fun and keep our fingers crossed for some nice weather!

We will see you all again on Monday 18th April.

Kind regards,
Mrs Jill Moir
Head Teacher
